

Required Training

Adult Orientation to Girl Scouting is available on-line through GSUSA and should be completed before a volunteer attends Leadership Essentials. This can be found at: <http://training.girlscouts.org/>. In order to receive credit for the course, please choose "Commonwealth" from the drop down box.

Welcome to Girl Scouting is scheduled at the service unit level with a field executive or an appointed service unit volunteer. The course lasts approximately three hours.

Leadership Essentials is available on-line through GSUSA at <http://training.girlscouts.org/>. In order to receive credit for the course, please choose "Commonwealth" from the drop down box.

Classroom learning will be scheduled as requested by service unit directors. Your training team is hard at work making sure everyone has access to training in their local area. If you are concerned about getting training in your area, call Beth Fellenstein (804) 746-0590 ext 322.
